“ Mom, you've only been gone a week and I miss you so much. I posted this picture, because it was only a few years prior to you having us three, and because me and Barbara see ourselves at that age. Especially Barbara. She can be your twin. It's so weird, Everytime I look into my sister's beautiful green eyes or her smile, I think of you. I definitely have your sassiness and Billy your motivation and power to make things work. All three of us have your determination, your love of living and your nonchalant ways. You and Dad both gave us our love of animals and fishing. I will truly miss our late night phone conversations on my drive home from work. Barbara and I, continue to check on Larry. He's so sad and lonely. Mom, we just all miss you, but know you have no more pain. Until we see you again, love forever and always, Billy, Brenda and Barbara.
